UNIVERSITY PARK COMMUNITY COUNCIL [UPCC] NEWSLETTER
The VOICE of the University Park Community Council

July 2012 • www.upcc.us

Note from the Editor: This is an abbreviated version of our UPWords. We will be back in September with our usual, expanded version and a new issue of the University Park Purple Pages Directory.

Celebrate at the Annual July 4th Holiday Parade

Wednesday, July 4th 10 a.m.
Observatory Park

Observatory on Warren Avenue)*

Residents of all ages are invited to the annual Fourth of July celebration in Observatory Park. The holiday parade, which has evolved over the years, includes kids, parents, bikes, tricycles, scooters, strollers, wagons — and even dogs — decked out in streamers and flags. The VFW will provide rousing music and Fire Station #24 will bring a pumper truck to douse anyone who wants to get drenched — a welcomed option on a hot summer day. The University Park Moms Club will provide free popsicles and sell soft drinks and hotdogs. Proceeds will be used for the new “free” toy bin in Observatory Park. This event, sponsored by the University Park Community Council (UPCC), and funded by voluntary dues payers, consistently draws hundreds of residents.

We need volunteers to help us prepare for the festivities. If you can help, please email president@upcc.us.
